CUILCAGH LAKELANDS GEOPARK

The Firehouse

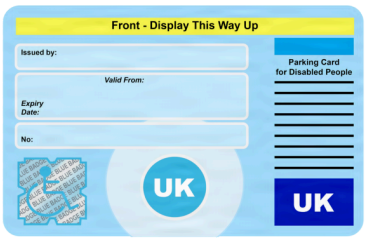

Know Before You Go Guide

The Firehouse is a well known bar and grill in Enniskillen town. Our menu includes stone-baked pizza, steaks, burgers, tapas, and cocktails. This guide will help you get ready for your visit.

To book your table at The Firehouse you can either book online at https://thefirehouse.org.uk/, email info@thefirehouse.org.uk or call +44(0)2866325210.

Blue Badge on street car parking is nearby as well as several public car parks. Public transport and taxis are also available in Enniskillen.

The Firehouse has step-free access on the ground floor. This includes the restaurant, bar and seating areas. There is no lift to the second floor.

An accessible bathroom is also available on the ground floor.

Registered guide and assistance dogs are welcome at The Firehouse.

The Firehouse can be busy and noisy in the evenings and weekends. Weekday lunchtimes are the calmest time to visit. You are welcome to bring your own headphones or ear defenders.

Cooking smells are strong and a distinctive part of the Firehouse atmosphere.

Sensory Tools in Nature

When you step outside The Firehouse stop and listen to the sounds around you. Hear the birds singing, and the wind moving through the trees.

Look at the trees and clouds in the sky. Can you spot shapes? It is calming to notice what's around you.

Nearby is Lough Erne. Listen to the water from lake lapping up against the shores. This can be calming.

Eco Friendly

The Firehouse is a Member of Cuilcagh Lakelands Geopark's Business Sustainability Network.

We work with local farmers and suppliers where possible, helping to support the local economy while reducing food miles.

We have invested in energy-efficient kitchen equipment and lighting, and staff are encouraged to reduce unnecessary energy use.
